Janice Manson RN MN CH
Clinical Hypnotherapist
& Change Catalyst

MindClick Partners Inc
West Vancouver, BC

Janice Manson RN MN CH, is a West Vancouver resident and business owner. She is the driving force behind MindClick Partners Inc (established 2007), a hypnosis-based personal and professional change and development organization focused on reshaping the mind for life success and wellbeing. As a Registered Nurse and Clinical Hypnotherapist, Janice Manson brings a fresh and focused perspective on reaching your health and wellness dreams by helping you harness the unfathomable power of the mind. Bringing hypnosis out of the closet, her programs allow participants to significantly impact health, attitudes, beliefs, behaviour and ultimately the quality of one's life. As a Change Catalyst, Janice works with individual, community and corporate clients and offers 1:1 hypnosis sessions, speaking events, hypnosis-based workshops and personalized change programs that bring positive, lasting results.

Janice has hundreds of hours of specialized hypnosis training including clinical hypnosis, HypnoFertility®, hypnosis for menopause, HypnoCoaching™, pain management, stage hypnosis and past life regression. An expert in Women's Wellness Hypnosis, areas of focus for her individualized hypnotherapy practice include weight management, menopause, pregnancy, childbirth, fertility and sexual health issues. Every year, in addition to her client work, Janice donates her nursing and hypnotherapist expertise and services to fundraise for a variety of organizations through service donations, hosting community education sessions and corporate lunch-and-learns.

To meet the specific needs of her private clients and corporate market, Janice has developed innovative hypnosis-based programs and hypnosis websites unique in the industry. ThinSpireMe!™, www.ThinSpireMe.com, is an innovative hypnosis program for weight management that is self-paced and delivered via the internet to clients in the comfort of their own home. ThinSpireMe! is also ideal for the corporate environment as a part of any innovative corporation's employee wellness program. Thought Cradle™ is a series of hypnosis programs for infertility, pregnancy, childbirth and parental development. BrainChild™ is a program for students to promote study habits, reduce test-anxiety and amp-up learning and recall. HypnoMenopause™ is a program developed to help women deal with the symptoms of menopause using hypnosis. Just launched, MindScriptives™, www.MindScriptives.com, is a website dedicated to selling downloadable hypnosis media, such as mp3s.

Getting ready to launch onto the internet in 2011, are several other new programs including an anti-ageing program called Positively-Ageless™ aimed at helping people age younger; EveLife™, a membership site for women to address all areas of life; ThinSpireMe! at Work™, the website for the corporate ThinSpireMe! program; and the HypnoMenopause™ website. Also in the works are several sites directed at various communities to provide free hypnosis based resources to medical practices, employers, parent-teacher associations, hospitals, charitable foundations and schools. These sites are part of Janice's mission to bring hypnosis out of the closet and demystify hypnosis in the eyes of the public.

Through MindClick, Janice publishes the free online newsletter, BrainCandy. Subscribers to this newsletter are kept informed of program offerings, workshops, webinars and speaking events. Each newsletter also includes original articles published through Janice's blogs, about brain science, health, success, business, education and hypnosis. As a speaker, Janice's well-rounded experience in the clinical, education and business arenas allows her to marry concepts, ideas and the latest information in those domains to create captivating speaking events. Whether teaching a five-day intensive course to her peers, presenting a webinar to clients, or providing a key-note address to a multi-national organization, Janice is comfortable in intimate settings or in front of an audience of thousands. In this, Janice's years of experience in sales and marketing hold her in good stead. Adept in the use of technology, Janice has entertained and educated audiences in Canada, the USA, Australia, and the UK. Flexible and creative, Janice will work with your organization to hone the perfect speaking event or workshop for your audience.
